Alpha, Slim

Helen White:

Step outside And feel the warmth Much stronger than inside

Crazy path That lead you here Creates a place to hide.

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

Frightened eyes take in the view Forgetting how it feels Look around, believe yourself The world outside is real

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

And I'm scared to be so heartless I'm hoping that you'll learn There's only one and that is you

Gave myself to you
No one can deny
I'm still waiting 'til you be
So content to feel
Can't despise myself
I'm still waiting 'til
Leave me break my heart
Can't control the pain
I'm still waiting 'til.
