

Alphaville, On Islands

On islands we all run
Onto islands in the sun
And the sun too is an island
With islands all around
We're all islands in the sea
And these islands want to reach
Other islands passing by
An island in the sky
On islands everywhere
All the islands ever there
Are all waiting on an island
And that island stands alone - alone...
There must be other islands...