

Alphaville, Waves

kind of thunder from my heart flooding my eyes kind of armies marching through my head
sombre soldiers
from nowhere kind of someone's moving out of me
have no fear
going somewhere

ship is leaving right on time empty harbour, wave goodbye evacuation of the isle caveman's paintings drowning famous last words on the air i stay here and you are there while our city softly sinks cavemen's paintings drowning
