

Alsou, Solo

I'm sitting alone here in my room
Staring at your picture from midnight till noon
Counting the hours, counting the days
You know that i miss you in a million ways

CHORUS:

Now I wait in the cold and this is getting old
No more stories, no more lies
Take me off this ride
When you see me in the hall
I look at the wall
By my actions you should know
I'm going solo

My friends tried to tell me, I didn't want to listen
Cos I'm the kind of person gotta find out on my own
I gave you my heart, you tore it apart
Now I'm coming back strong, I knew it was wrong

Chorus
