

Altaria, Innocent

Look deeper into your eyes
And tell me what you see
Misty dreams and false illusions
In a darkened sea of tears
Find the meaning and carry on
Just let the hate surface
Live the dream of fame and fortune
Annihilate the fears
Vengeance is yours to demand
Though destiny is our of your hands
Innocent - like a child
Heaven sent - lost in time
The world crashed down
Right before your eyes
Look deeper into your eyes
And set the demons free
Shameful lies and raging evil
Haunting souls in need
Flames of fire
All died one by one
