

Alter Bridge, We Don't Care At All

Crack the heart
With true intentions
Blood and scars and
No redemption
We've been the slave
To your disaster
Lost it all
It doesn't matter

And we don't care at all
We've got nothing to take on
And leave the rest to fall
We're going back where we belong

Waste away, amount to nothing
But your opinions keep on coming
We're dead inside, to your rejection
Risk it all and did I mention

I'll say again
I'll say again

And we don't care at all
We've got nothing to take on
And leave the rest to fall
We're going back where we belong

Never doubted, never questioned
What we were, where we've been
Scream out loud it's our intentions
Find a word

-Solo-

And we don't care at all
We've got nothing to take on
And leave the rest to fall
We're going back where we belong

I'll say again
I'll say again

And we don't care at all
We've got nothing to take on (on)
(Say it again) And leave the rest to fall
We're going back where we belong
