

Alvin Stardust, Weekend

It's Friday night and ev'rything's right for the weekend.
We propose that anything goes on a weekend.
John called Ann and Jim got Sue and I made a date with little old you Off we went to make a big dent on the weekend.

Boy

it's great just staying out late on the weekend.
Know a spot and I like it a lot on the weekend.
Took the road to look out hill
the view up there is sure a thrill
What a night to hold you tight on a weekend.
There we were just sittin' cool and cosy. Just about to steal a little kiss.
Police with a flashlight bright and nosey

Said holy mack'rel there what is all this.
Car top down just ridin' around on the weekend.
Took a chance on crashin' a dance on the weekend.
We were almost inside the place
somebody slammed the door in my face Hey you guys
you gotta wear ties on the weekend.
