

Amadeus, Temptation

Whenever I see you
You are always beautiful
Shining as the sun
Wonderful as the moon
But I don't have hopes
With your glance
Because this can hurt me
Or to leave me more passionate
You are my temptation
You are my illusion
I cannot escape from this destiny
I will continue trying to conquer
A place in your heart
A place in your life
My eternal temptation
That makes my heart happy
But I don't have hopes
With your glance
Because this can hurt me
Or to leave me more passionate
You are my temptation
You are my illusion
I cannot escape from that destiny
I will continue trying to conquer
A place in your heart
A place in your life
My eternal temptation
That makes my heart happy
