

Amanda Marshall, Fall From Grace

Fall From Grace

Performed by Amanda Marshall

Lost inside this angeltown

Lost like I could not be found

No connections of the heart

Love was glass that broke apart

Gimme faith in dreams

And someone to hold

Gimme love 'cause I'm out here in the cold

There are no secrets

No angels at my door

Chorus

And oh, when you touch my hand

I fall from grace

And oh, when you reach for me

I fall from grace

On a steeltown boulevard

Life's a promise that doesn't last

Resurrections of the past

Children come and are gone so fast

So gimme faith in love

Baby tonight

Gimme arms to hold you here so tight

There are no secrets

No angels at my door

Chorus repeat
