Amanda Marshall, Fall From Grace

Fall From Grace Performed by Amanda Marshall Lost inside this angeltown Lost like I could not be found No connections of the heart Love was glass that broke apart Gimme faith in dreams And someone to hold Gimme love 'cause I'm out here in the cold There are no secrets No angels at my door Chorus And oh, when you touch my hand I fall from grace And oh, when you reach for me I fall from grace On a steeltown boulevard Life's a promise that doesn't last Resurrections of the past Children come and are gone so fast So gimme faith in love Baby tonight Gimme arms to hold you here so tight There are no secrets No angels at my door Chorus repeat
