

Amanda Palmer, Have To Drive

i have to drive
i have my reasons, deer it's cold outside i hate the seasons here i suffer mornings most of all i feel so powerless and small by 10 o'clock i'm back in bed fighting the jury in my head we learn to drive

it's only natural, deer we drive all night we haven't slept in years we suffer mornings most of all we saw you lying in the road we tried to dig a decent grave but it's still no way to behave it is a delicate position spin the bottle

pick the victim catch a tiger
switch directions
if he hollers
break his ankles
to protect him

we'll have to drive they're getting closer just get inside it's almost over

we will save your brothers we will save your cousins we will drive them far away from streets and signs from all signs of mad mankind

wake up all bleary-eyed and sore forgetting everything we saw i'll meet you in an hour at the car.
