

Amanda Wilkinson, No More Me And You

Don't tell me if there's ever
No more me and you
Just let me keep on thinking
The grass is green and the sky is blue
Just leave me the sweet illusions
Faith and hope and truth
Yeah, leave me the sweet illusions
Faith and hope and truth
If there's ever no more me and you

'Cuz I've gotta keep on paying the rent
And I've gotta keep on making the bed
And I've gotta keep on walking around acting normal
And I've gotta keep on saying a prayer
And I've gotta keep on giving a care
And I've gotta keep on walking around breathing
And I don't think I will
If there's ever no more me and you

If it's ever the last time
And you know it is the last time
Kiss me 'till you're convinced
I don't know it's the last time
And leave me the sweet illusions
Faith and hope and truth
Yeah, leave me the sweet illusions
Faith and hope and truth
If there's ever no more me and you

(Chorus)

And I don't think I will
If there's ever no more me and you
Baby
If there's ever no more me and you
