

Amaranthe, Massive Addictive

Give me purity, strength and affection
Give me lust to ignite my devotion for life
It's where beauty comes alive

Can't you see I'm a slave to the darkness
Cutting down
And I know I have done this before
As I stare into the wall

And no it's time to let it shine
Cause don't you know I'm addicted

Massive addictive
And suddenly I'm greatly affected
Like burning fire inside
My cyanide
Scared of losing my mind
Massive addictive
I'm totally completely afflicted
As I inspire the lie like a lullaby
Crawling around in my mind

Unremitting
Demand of my hunger
Time stands still
As I am losing the grip of it all
Like a thousand times before

Give me antidotes
Constant removers
Make an instant deductive denial in vain
Cause I always stay the same

And now it's time to be reborn
Although I know it's addictive

It's massive destruction
Combination of glory and hope
A schematic affliction
Of a feeling inside what I sworn
