

Amazing Device, Lay Your Head

Here we lie
On a mattress
Made of carbonite
Sing to me again your lullabies
Of sarcastic replies
Whisper to me
Unconsciously your sincere apologies

Where do you lay your head?
And how do you sleep?
Is it me was it something I said?
Where do you lay your head?
Don't go to sleep angry

Silence is like a car alarm
While you're trying to sleep
If you're in a discussion

Cross your fingers, count your blessings
That my tanks not on empty

Where do you lay your head?
And how do you sleep?
Is it me was it something I said?
Where do you lay your head?
Don't go to sleep angry

don't go to sleep, don't go to sleep, don't go....

Here we lie
On a mattress
Made of carbonite...

Where do you lay your head?
And how do you sleep?
Is it me was it something I said?
Where do you lay your head?
Don't go to sleep angry

Shuffling my feet you move like wind in my dreams
What does it all mean?
It's over when my eyelids break their seams
Morning comes up to erase all that I was to embrace
Don't go to sleep angry....
Don't go to sleep, Don't go to sleep...
