

Amazing Transparent Man, Phones Are Dumb

With plans for everything, I go out on the road
I'm leaving just one thing, with no contact but a phone

A phone call won't keep you warm at night
I need you lying next to me
I dream of you waking by my side
I need you lying next to me
Tonight

Asleep on some kid's floor
Miles and miles from your front door
Our bonus a decent van
Or a "you rock" from a fan
