

Amber, Anyway

You love black and I like red
You like dogs and I like cats
I like to talk, you rather watch TV
You like to control, I accept what I see
You're so cool, I am emotional
You want a wife, I need a match for my soul
You stare at the moon, I reach for the stars
I am from venus and you are from mars

I don't know what you need, what you do or say
I love you anyway, love you anyway
I don't know what you feel, should I go or stay
I love you anyway, love you anyway

We are together but we still feel alone
If one is there the other one is gone
If I were you and you were me for a day
Nothing can change, anyway
