

Amber Pacific, Don

I couldn't bare with my world today
Was the reason we let this fade
And the only thing left was tried not true
A love I could not save
But I'm here and I'm not afraid
I can keep you from all this pain
And now you're reading the notes of how to deal with me when I'm away
Here's your chance
Don't let it fall through
Know that in your life is where I am
I'll be there to guide you
If you feel like you can't make it
Know you can
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh....
I can't even begin to think
As my heart it begins to sink
And a desolate cycle circles through my mind
I can't unweave
But I'm finding the only way
Is to face what I cannot say
And I hope in the end with time you'll see our love won't ever change
Here's your chance
Don't let it fall through
Know that in your life is where I am
I'll be there to guide you
If you feel like you can't make it
Know you can
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh....
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh....
Here's your chance
Don't let it fall through
Just know that in your life is where I am
I'll be there to guide you
I know that you can take it
Here's your chance
Don't let it fall through
Know that in your life is where I am
I'll be there to guide you
If you feel like you can't make it
Know you can
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh....
I know you can
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh....
I know you can
