

Amber Pacific, The Last Time

I faintly remember yesterday,
Oh so close yet far away,
From the lives that we once etched in stone
Who would think that it would last
Please just give it one more chance
Forever is a word that only grows

And never in this saddest moment
I feel we're letting go
And if you take me, please don't leave me
I'll never let you go

This is goodbye
'Cause we're growing older
This is forever in the words you never said
This is goodnight
'Cause we're getting colder
This is the last time I'll kiss your lips again

I close my eyes,
All I think about is you
I miss the girl that I once knew
A sleepless night
A dying wish
Please don't leave me here like this

This is goodbye
'Cause we're growing older
This is forever in the words you never said
This is goodnight
'Cause we're getting colder
This is the last time I'll kiss your lips again

And never in this saddest moment
I feel we're letting go
And if you take me, please don't leave me
I'll never let you go

This is goodbye
'Cause we're growing older
This is forever in the words you never said
This is goodnight
'Cause we're getting colder
This is the last time I'll kiss your lips again

Again
