

Amber, You Are The One

I wanna show you that you are the one
Mmmm let me tell you baby
You are the only and you are the one
I need to tell you how I feel for you

It feels so good to look into your eyes
And watch my dreams become real
Feel so secure and warm inside
I want to tell you how I really feel
We spent all our time living on a dream
Boy it's so divine, making love to you

All down my spine you send a gentle chill
When I've got you on my mind
We've got the key to all the precious things
But I'm so glad that you're mine
Counting every day untill you're near again
I will promise you to do the best I can

Please me
Special love all over me
Your tender love is all in me
Don't you break my heart
