

Amberian Dawn, Valkyries

Ravens over battlefield are marking the chosen brave northern warriors to their last fight.

Shieldmaidens ride the wolves in the sky with ravens scouting the battleground for souls of slain heroes.

Choosers of slain.

Valkyries ride through the night sky
singing fierce battle-cries,
Valkyries, choosers of slain, come ride their wolves!

Howling wolves in the night carrying female deities escort the dead warriors to Odin's hall.

Armour of Valkyries flashes up over the skies shading a strange light - the northern lights!

Choosers of slain.

Valkyries ride through the night sky
singing fierce battle-cries,
Valkyries, choosers of slain, come ride their wolves!
