Ambrosia, Shape I'm In

(Puerta - Pack)

When you're in the shape I'm in,
It's tellin' me somethin',
It's givin' me warning
It's gotta be rough, man,
When you're in the shape I'm in
From all of your lies

You left me cryin';
Didn't know where I could turn to
You said you loved me
And you turned your back on me, girl
And I believed in all your lies
You took my heart and soul,
And now the pain won't go

When you're in the shape I'm in,
It's tellin' me somethin',
It's givin' me warning
It's gotta be rough, man,
When you're in the shape I'm in
From all of your lies

Was I the one man
That you said you'd always stand by
But when the hard times came,
You left without a goodbye
Was I a fool to let you go?
How can I feel alive
When I just feel like dyin'

Can't you see I'm a man who's cryin'?
You took my heart and soul,
And now the pain won't go no

Shape I'm in
From all of your lies

Was I a fool to let you go?
How can I feel alive
When I just feel like dyin'

Shape I'm In

When you're in the shape I'm in From all of your lies
