

Ambrosia, Still Not Satisfied

(Drummond - Pack - Puerta)

Well, I'm livin' but I still ain't satisfied
I'm runnin' but I don't know where to hide
There have been lovers, places I've known
Strangers I've turned to when I've been alone
And I'm leavin' 'cause I'm still not satisfied
Yeah, I'm bleedin' and I don't know where to hide

There have been places I'd like to have seen
Dreams that have never come true
But in this lifetime there's no in between
In between living with you

I've been shot down but still I stand to fight
I know what's wrong but I don't know what's right
'Cause all of your money, sweet talk and gold
Can't buy a heart back that's already sold
And I'm leaving 'cause I still ain't satisfied
Yeah, I'm bleedin' and I don't know where to hide

I have no reason to go back again
Living but not getting through
'Cause in this lifetime there's no in between
In between living with you

Ain't found nothing to rely on
No place I feel at home
Show me something to get by on
Seems I've waited so long
I don't hear what you say anymore

Well, I'm runnin'...
