

Amduscia, Corpses Symphony

Here I am, among the dead
Expelled symphonies from their languid bodies
Corpses searching to take their last breath
Here's where the lady dressed in black mutilates your body
Time here does not advance at your favour anymore
Only mutilated bodies I see around me
Could this be our punishment?
The wind whispers a cry in my ear

I don't see anymore I don't feel anymore
I just hear that I'm dead

I don't see anymore I don't feel anymore
I just hear that I'm dead

What an asshole is death
Worms drilling my brain, erasing my memories
Corpses offering symphonies to death with evil melodies
My hands wither everything around me

I don't see anymore, I don't feel anymore
I don't see anymore, I just hear that I'm dead

The demons claim my body
Is time to leave but when you hear the dead singing
Don't worry anymore you will have found all your answers
Just let yourself go and don't ask anymore who will save you

Just let yourself go and don't ask anymore who will save you
