

Amduscia, Dead Or Alive

I rend my rotten skin
With my nails turned to knives, once again

This hate to humanity encourages me incessantly

Why should I live?
Why should I live?
Why haven't I died?

I'm longing the death, help me to die
Am I still awake? Help me so fast

One more time, one more time

In my cutting and raped body
I only search, innocence
The evil, is the only you have
In your mind, in your heart

In my cutting and raped body
I only search, innocence
The evil, is the only you have
In your mind, in this time

Will I remain dead or alive?
Which will be my reality?

Why should I live?
Why should I live?
Why haven't I died?

I'm longing the death, help me to die
Am I still awake? Help me so fast

In my cutting and raped body
I only search, innocence
The evil, is the only you have
In your mind, in your heart

In my cutting and raped body
I only search, innocence
The evil, is the only you have
In your mind, in this time

The evil
Is the only you have

I need to confess you something
There's no life if you don't confront the death

Let's seek
Let's seek suicide as a cure to save our rotten souls
