

Ameerah, Sound of Missing You

I miss hearing your voice,
All the words that you said to me
But now this empty space fills me up and takes over me
And I cant escape it
It always keeps coming back
The sound of missing you
I hear it all around
The sound of missing you
The silence is so loud
The sound of missing you
I cant break through these walls that are rising in front of me
And the deeper I fall, I realise I never gonna be free
Baby release me
It always keeps coming back
The sound of missing you
I hear it all around
The sound of missing you
The silence is so loud
The sound of missing you
Time goes by and it feels like Im just going out of my mind
What we had, bring it back now
Cause Im feeling empty inside
Oh, times goes by and it feels like Im just going out of my mind
What we had, bring it back now
Cause Im feeling empty inside
It always keeps coming back
The sound of missing you
I hear it all around
The sound of missing you
The silence is so loud
(Yeah) I miss hearing your voice,
All the words that you said to me (oh I need you)
But now this empty space fills me up and takes over me (heeeeey)
(Baby release me)
I cant break through these walls, they are rising in front of me (it alway keeps coming back)
(The sound of missing you)
And the deeper I fall, I realise I never gonna be free (I hear it all around)
(The sound of missing you)
I cant break through these walls, they are rising in front of me (the silence is so loud)
The sound of missing you
The sound of missing you
The sound of missing you
