Amen, Bring Me The Heads

Bring me the heads of Roman Polanski! Bring me the legs of Fred Astaire!

We come from a place called heaven That you made hell That you can sell We set fires to this lesson That heavens sell That lesson failed

War!
We need this WAR
War!
We need this WAR? Right on

Bring me the heads of Roman Polanski! Bring me the legs of Fred Astaire!

We come from this hell called heaven That vision held That vision killed We set fires to your lessons Your babies kill Your babies guilt

War!
We need this WAR
War!
We need this WAR? Right on

Sell it now, selling out Everyone you know is selling out Sell it now, selling out Everyone you know is selling out

Cause theres a war and you believe it Cause theres a war and you dont care Sell it all, sell it now, sell it now Cause theres a war and you dont see it Cause theres a war and you dont care

Sell it now, selling out Everyone you know is selling out Sell it now, selling out Everyone you know is selling out Bring me the head of Roman Polanski! Bring me the legs of Fred Astaire!
