

Amen, Take My Head

Take my head rip it open
Take the sickness buried you too
Take my head rip it open
Take the scissors sliced to fill

Did you wanna know how the humans being Told the lies that you believed
Did you know that the human need
Is bigger than the recieved

Give-for-get

You can take mine
You can take my fuckin head
And bury it in the backyard

Take my head take my head
Take my head rip it open
Take the stitches licenced to you
Take my head rip it open
Take the harness built for you

Dig your therapist a grave
Big enough for the both of you

Get-for-give now.

You can take mine.

Someone tell me how to live
Someone tell me how you live
Someone tell me how to live
Someone tell me how to live in here
You can take mine
You can take my fuckin head
