Amen, The Price Of Reality

Let them inject you inject you freely The sores of truth reprised Truth mended with the razors-deny I stand accused at the end of my life End mending to the truth in our lies

And did they want to find you? And did they bury your life? Its just a holiday for you Human assembly line

Its just a holiday for you In your assembly line Another holiday for you Abortion candy machine What is the price of reality?

Let them take you into tomorrow Tomorrow never arrives The proof is in our abscessed sex lives Abandoned in static erratic fines Erratic we embrace our demise

And did they want to buy you? In your assembly line Its just a holiday for you In your human assembly line Another holiday for you Abortion candy machine What is the price of reality?

Sign the welfared checks in your sickness With your childrens blood splattered on the back of
