

American Head Charge, Song For The Suspect

I can still watch those eyes crawling over her dress until I could show you everything but I don't have to hear the words cause I already feel your thoughts so it comes as no surprise that all the intent is real all the suspects are right if we stop
it all falls down
cover my eyes
obey my ignorance
to purify you
I'll only watch you rot without malicious intent your doubt resembles someone else stick the needles in me stick the needles in [3x]
if we watch
it all come down
breathe and let it go dropped and winding
fuck your confession
fuck your confusion
dissolve my insides
make it hide
crawling on dignity
that which you do to me
hold on forever
the fair day we
weather
