

American Hi-Fi, Don't Wait For The Sun

i don't need to know why cause tommorow i'll be fine i should learn to be still if i close my eye i'll realize what you meant

[chorus:]
don't wait for the sun
it could turn black any day i lost my hat in the clouds when will the haze go away i never wanted this now it's all i've got someone else is keeping time i think i'm falling apart if you were me would you do it like i do

[repeat chorus 2x]

so don't wait for the sun
don't wait for the sun
you're all that i wanted
