American Idol, If You Really Love Me

Ryan Starr

Whoo, come on
If you really love me
won't you tell me (yeah)
if you really love me
won't you tell me (yeah)
so i won't have to be hanging around

You call my name ooh so sweet to make your kissing complete when your mood is clear You quickly change your ways then you say I'm untrue what am I supposed to do be a fool who sits alone waiting for you

Oh if you really love me won't you tell me, yeah Oh if you really love me won't you tell me, yeah so I wont have to be hanging around

I see the light of your smile calling me all the while You are saying baby it's time to go first the feelings alright then it's gone from sight so I've taken out this time to say
