

American Music Club, Fearless

Lost again, am I lost again?
I closed my eyes and kept on going
Now, I'm gone and nothing's gonna endure
Unless I love you even more
Found again, am I found again?
By your hands, my home is in your hands
And that's a touch I don't deserve anymore
Unless I love you even more
A stubborn heart can stay broken forever
But someday the tightrope's gonna break
And will I fall into a cool, cool river
Or will I fall into a frozen lake
Saved again, am I saved again?
By your eyes, the tears in your eyes
And it's your tears, they're the only thing that makes me sure
I've got to love you even more
And your tears, they're the only thing that's gonna endure
Unless I love you even more
