

Amila Zazu, Lunatic

I dont know
Im lost among the crowd
Im screaming loudly but there is no sound
Im alone
invisible for eyes
its me the one that they never will see, never work out
I dont know why
they mess within my mind theyll never know what life is without lies
I dont know
I feel insane and mad
Im lunatic - they never will know, never make out and never and never and I guess that they will never and never and never theyll never know you
and never and never theyll never work you out
and never and never theyll never know me
and never and never and I guess that they will never
and never I guess theyll never make it
I dont know
Im lost among the crowd
Im screaming loudly but there is no sound
Im alone
invisible for eyes
its me the one that they never will see, never work out
I dont know why
I dont know
I feel insane and mad
can you hear me crying at night?
can you see me through your heart?
we mean so much when we hold tight together were strong, we will survive we can disappear from here now I will never let you down we can run
run away
I dont know
Im lost among the crowd
Im screaming loudly but there is no sound
Im alone
invisible for eyes
its me the one that they never will see, never work out
I dont know
