

Amila Zazu, Something's Gotta Change

Still wait
Still want
Still wait
Give me what Im looking for
I wont tell you the truth
Im not allowed
Ive been thinking of you
But still got to hide
Its so breaking down
Listen to me
Im burning with the same fire you set in me
I wont break the wall
My hands are to weak
Im losing control
Please set me free
Save me from myself
I hope you dare
If you dont, I will lose my faith
Babe Something has just gotta change
Its killing me, I dont wanna wait
And now that youre so far away
Our thoughts meet high in the air
Babe Me and you must sort it out
Its really tough but you do know how
Cause even when youre so far away
Your thoughts meet mine in the air
My emotions, they
They seem to fly
Can you see my wings?
Im butterflies
Will you set them free?
Dont say no
The flames inside me are still willing to burn
Do you know Im here
Waiting alone
I go to extremes
Cause I might be wrong
So please tell me now
What you feel
Let me know or just let me go
Babe Something has just gotta change
Its killing me, I dont wanna wait
And now that youre so far away
Our thoughts meet high in the air
Babe Me and you must sort it out
Its really tough but you do know how
Cause even when youre so far away
Your thoughts meet mine in the air
Still wait
Still want
Still fly
