Amorosi Vanessa
Turn To Me
Steam
Ah steam

You know it's steam

It's now been fifteen days since you've been steamed at me
And I don't want your frustration and your madness
Pushed and blamed on me

'Cos you're crazy through the day
And you're crazy through the night
And, what the hell, you've been crazy all your life
And I don't want people thinking I'm not treating you right

It's the nature of it
Steam
It's the nature of it,
Steam
When you 're saying those things
that you don't really mean
You can blame it on the rain
You can blame it on the heat
It's the nature of it
Steam

You seem to put it all on me
The sky, your health
Your dreams and your beliefs
And I seem to protect and respect everything too naturally

Steam,
You know it's steam

More days, more days
I'm steamed in every way
I said, no way, no way,
I'm steamed in every way

You can blame it on the rain
You can blame it on the heat
It's the nature of it
Steam

It's the nature of it,
Steam
When you 're saying those things
that you don't really mean

You can blame it on the rain
You can blame it on the heat
It's the nature of it
Steam

More days, more days
I'm steamed in every way
I said, no way, no way,
I'm steamed in every way

I said more days, more days,
I'm steamed in every way
I said, no way, no way,

This is where I stay.
