

Ampop, S.a.d.

We try to sleep
But we're awake and we weap
We tried to set ourselves free But when we came out there was nothing to see

I?ll sit here and wait for you But when you appear it will be to late
We try to sleep
But we're awake and we weap

We try to set ourselves free
But we are awake
cause it?s so hard to be

We live by the sea
in a small shack
There we all meet and put on our masks

Today is ok
so calm and pretty Darkness don?t come my worst enemy

We try to set ourselves free
But we are awake
cause there is nowhere to be
We try to set ourselves free
But we are awake
cause it?s so hard to be
