Amy Diamond, Domino

You're playing your pieces You're setting me up Trying to knock me down You don't have a reason That I can believe in To push me round

You're creating a highway of lies One by one

No matter what you say or do I won't fall like a domino Matter how you sway (you sway) The truth, (ah, ah, ahh) I won't fall like a domino I won't fall like a I won't fall like a I won't fall like a I won't fall like a

I won't fall like a I won't fall like a I won't fall like a domino

You're writing me letters You think you know better What's right and wrong You think you're perfection And that my direction Just doesn't belong

You're making a fool of yourself You're so far gone

No matter what you say or do
I won't fall like a domino
Matter how you sway (you sway)
The truth, (ah, ah, ahh)
I won't fall like a domino
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a

You'll reap the things you sow You'll go down like a domino Just watch me from below I won't fall like a I won't fall like a domino

(No matter what you say) or do I won't fall like a domino Matter how you sway (you sway) The truth, (ah, ah, ahh) I won't fall like a domino I won't fall like a I won't fall like a I won't fall like a

(I won't fall like a) I won't fall like a I won't fall like a domino (Aahh, aahh, aahh) I won't fall like a domino (Aahh, aahh, aahh) I won't fall like a domino
