

Amy Diamond, That's Life

Nights keep on falling
Dreamers dream away
Days keep on dawning
You never know
What fortune throws your way

Feeling safe and sound
You walk around without a care
'Til something knocks you
Down from out of nowhere
Hello there

That's life, it's bag of trix
That's life, whatta magic mix
That's life, you dunno what you get
That's life, full of mystery
That's life, ces't la vie
That's life, and what will be will be

Time waits for no one
That much is understood
The future's wide open
Just take a look in
Life's unwritten book

Hangin on a thread
You're on the edge of your defeat
So, luck comes popping up
And in a heartbeat
You're on easy street

That's life, it's bag of trix
That's life, whatta magic mix
That's life, you dunno what you get
That's life, full of mystery
That's life, ces't la vie
That's life, and what will be will be

You can plan a pretty picnic
You can pick the perfect time
But you can't expect
The weather to be fine

And that applies to you and I
And all of us around the globe
We dunno what tomorrow holds
That's the beauty of it all

That's the beauty of it all, ooh

That's life, it's bag of trix
That's life, whatta magic mix
That's life, you dunno what you get
That's life, full of mystery
That's life, ces't la vie
That's life, and what will be will be
