

Amy Jo Johnson, In A Rainbow

I'm, in a rainbow
And, I'm feeling mighty good
Colored vibrations, passing me by
Some going through me, not telling me why
Some slow, and some fast, and some teaching me how to fly

(I'm not too sure, but I think that) I'm, in a rainbow
(After thinking I could) And, I'm feeling mighty good
Noises to see, and colors that sound
Voices from nowhere, and yet so profound
Naming of colors, and places that just can't be found

(I'm not too sure now, but I think that) I'm, in a rainbow
(After thinking I'm sure) And, I'm feeling mighty good Constantly moving, but not knowing where
Gazing at hypnotic things, here and there
And always thinking ahead, 'cause the past couldn't care
