

Amy Pearson, Fool

Must be mildly crazy,
Thinkin that youre gon preciate me,
Could you just be kinda lazy?
Coz I think its time you celebrate me,
Always tryna do the thing you like,
Why dya have to make it a waste of time,
I lay it out baby ya must be blind,
Chasin my tail again,

[Chorus]:

And even saying I love you,
Never ever sounds enough,
But you know that I do,
They sky could be clear babe,
But you never call it blue,
Why dont you ya f-f-fool
Could be a big neon plus sign,
But youd swear right there was I red light
Baby this is bona fide love,
So tell me what is it your scared of?
Always tryna do the thing you like,
Why dya have to make it a waste of time,
I lay it out baby ya must be blind,
Chasin my tail again,

[Chorus]:

And even saying I love you,
Never ever sounds enough,
But you know that I do,
They sky could be clear babe,
But you never call it blue,
Why dont you ya f-f-fool
Yeah Yeah Yeah, Yeah Yeah Yeah,
Dont get no gratitude, Yeah Yeah Yeah,
Whats your problem baby?
Always tryna do the thing you like,
Why dya have to make it a waste of time,
I lay it out baby ya must be blind,
Chasin my tail again,
Stand up baby and take the blame,
Ya got your head in the sand again,
Cant get through its such a shame,
Tell me why?

[Chorus]:

And even saying I love you,
Never ever sounds enough,
But you know that I do,
They sky could be clear babe,
But you never call it blue,
Why dont you ya f-f-fool

[x2]

And even saying I love you,
Never ever sounds enough,
But you know that I do,
They sky could be clear babe,
But you never call it blue,
Why dont you ya f-f-fool
