

Amy Pearson, Remember To Breathe

I hear your voice, am I dreaming?
I see your face and I reach out,
The vision dissolves then it just fades away,
Drawing alone in my own thoughts,
Calm of the storm there is silence,
Empty and lost I put a smile on each day,

[Chorus]:

And I breathe this air like Im alive,
And without you here, my heart is frozen inside,
And Id run to you if I knew how,
Id fall into your arms, never let you go,
I wouldnt have to, remember to breathe,
I put on this dress and some make-up,
But it cant hide what Im feelin,
Work through the pain its the only way,
Once I was weak getting stronger,
Everythings changed Im so lonely,
Gotta get up wipe a thousand tears away,

[Chorus]:

And I breathe this air like Im alive,
And without you here, my heart is frozen inside,
And Id run to you if I knew how,
Id fall into your arms, never let you go,
I wouldnt have to, remember to breathe,
Step by step I climb this mountain of mine,
I slip back, but everybody has to fall sometimes,
Reaching out I almost touch the sky,
Its the best I can do to try,

[Chorus]:

And I breathe this air like Im alive,
And without you here, my heart is frozen inside,
And Id run to you if I knew how,
Id fall into your arms, never let you go,
I wouldnt have to, remember to breathe.
