

Amy Pearson, Stranded

So my heart has been ship wrecked again and i try to swim to dry land to reach the shore, it's a desert island and i wright help, in the sand as large as i can,
that you ignore,
so im waving at air planes,
waiting for ships to come take me away,
when i noticed the tide
sure is coming in fast,
and i guess that this song really could be my last,

[Chours]:

i feel like im stranded here with,
no one to rescue me
abanded by everyone i need,
i feel like you played me,
i feel like im such a fool, left stranded here by you, oh so the quick sand is pulling me down, you could throw that rope, and could save me from dispare, i was cast away you let me drown, so i tried to scream but i bet no-one would hear,
put a messege in a bottle that you'll never read, so this is the last song that you'll get from me,

[Chours]:

i feel like im stranded here with,
abanded by everyone i need,
i feel like you played me,
left stranded here by you, oh oh oh
waiting for ships to come take me away,
im scared that this song,
really could be my last,

i feel like im stranded here with,
stuck between two worlds,
what should i do,
im stranded by you...
