

Ana Johnsson, Cuz i can

I could be anything
You want me to be
Cook you nice dinners
And then gently rub your feet
I could be a perfect wife
But I won't, no I won't
I could be the sweetest thing
You think you've ever seen
Dress up in skimpy clothes
All to fulfill your dream
I could do anything
But I won't, no I won't
I'll be a fly in your soup
The one that's always in your face
Try to wave me away
I'll be right back on your case
I'm the stain on your suit
Yeah, that one you can't replace
Just beacuse i can
I'll be the itch on your back
On a spot that you can't reach
I'm the reason you crack
Yeah, I'm like a bad disease
Just because i can
Just because i can
I could be the mistress
Who says she doesn't care
And I'll keep on smiling
When you're treating me like air
I could be your best friend
The one who's always there
But I won't, no I won't
I'll be a fly in your soup
The one that's always in your face
Try to Wave me away
I'll be right back on your case
I'm the stain on your suit
Yeah, that one you can't replace
Just beacuse i can
I'll be the itch on your back
On a spot that you can't reach
I'm the reason you crack
Yeah, I'm like a bad disease
Just because i can
Just because i can
