

Anadivine, The Stalker And The Songwriter

*pre-song:

Survive this night,
with a constant you keep dreaming.
Are you dreaming?
Would you follow pride and kill him off tonight.

Thanks to you the asphalt that broke my fall.
She pushed me over. (She pushed me over.)
And disregarding blood knees cause after all,
its when you're sober then. (Its when you're sober then)

(chourus)

The pain kicks in cause the pills, they wore off.
And there's no medication I find strong engouh,
to replace my spine and destroy my mind. (This time)
I heard you were sleeping alone.
In a bed made for two,
I'm spending this night without you.
And you heard I was drinking alone.

Into you a violent wake up call.
She pushed me over. (She pushed me over)
And it's regarding the disease that's un us all.
Its when you're sober. (Its when your sober.)

(chourus)

The pain kicks in cause the pills, they wore off.
And there's no medication I find strong engouh,
to replace my spine and destroy my mind. (This time)
I heard you were sleeping alone.
In a bed made for two,
I'm spending this night without you.
And you heard I was drinking alone.

Take your eyes off of me.
Take your hands off of me.

*repeat whole thing until end of song

Survive this night,
(survive this night...)
with a constant you keep dreaming.
Are you dreaming?
Would you follow pride and kill him off tonight.
