

Anathallo, Hoodwink

"So nevermind,...

Someday they will build monuments for us" - Adolf Eichmann (planner of the Nazi gas chambers)
People like me walk out the door, we'll pull you out into the streets of far off countries. If I'm ready to
So you see, all things are so bright and spiritual. These seeds are growing in extraordinary colors.
Don't worry about me, I'm gone. Don't worry about me, I'm off in a distant place where I can be the
Out here there is no "under the skin", and the form of every other is hidden under cover
We couldn't rest, with this awful sense of duty hanging off of our chests. Peeled away. We had to
