

Anberlin, Audrey, Start The Revolution!

Maybe tonight we'll get back together sound the alarms and break all the levers These streets are ours
Our anthem rings
You'd know the truth
if these walls could sing Amateur youth sling down the signs Gather the masses, friends of mine
I've got your back if you've got my hand
This isn't over it just began
If this isn't love (This isn't love)
this is the closest I've ever been
Do you think we have a chance tonight?
as streetlights sing on Audrey's song [x2]
Remind your parents we're tomorrow Lead with morals and we'll follow
When they wake up they'll see that youth fades
and glory days deceive What are you waiting for? let's move on this time is of essence, like your kiss So say you're in with cards down and guns drawn, this is it
If this isn't love (This isn't love)
this is the closest I've ever been
Do you think we have a chance tonight
as streetlights sing on Audrey's song [x2]
And now it all stops at this
We could take it all if only we would risk
You can be what can conceive Red letters kill your disbelief
We all make mistakes sometimes We all fail but we stand tonight Look past, learn, and move on We're all here, you're not the only one
If this isn't love (This isn't love)
this is the closest I've ever been
Do you think we have a chance tonight?
as streetlights sing on Audrey's song [x4]
