

Anberlin, Disappear

We are the last of the sleepless ones
Left behind by those we left behind tonight
Quiet now let our poison take
Were we always just your lost cause mistakes

Wait for me, will you wait for me?
Need you by my side
Way for me make way for me
With arms wide

Alone, left alone
Watch us slowly disappear with time
Unknown still unknown
Forgotten, lost, and left behind

Dark lit streets are no place for kids
But it gives us more of a home than you ever did
We're the silentists left to our own demise
You're still our last chance to get out of this place alive

Wait for me, will you wait for me?
With arms wide

Alone, left alone
Watch us slowly disappear with time
Unknown still unknown
Forgotten, lost, and left behind

Alone,
Left alone
Watch you slowly disappear
In time

Alone, left alone
Watch us slowly disappear with time
Unknown still unknown
Forgotten, lost, and left

Alone, left alone
Watch us slowly disappear with time
Unknown still unknown
