

Anberlin, Ready Fuels

This car turned over without a key or gasoline tonight
Feel everything on fire and I'm dressed to kill
Killing for your dress goodnight
Help me to wait on you, hesitate I'm broke 'cause I'm alone
Feel so jaded, contemplative, waiting for you
We're running
We're running hot tonight and it feels so good
Your arm in mine here near midnight and it feels so right
Girls and the boys chase down running hot tonight
Running down the readyfuels it's finally over, just get over
Time will tell if all turns out okay
Help me to realize my dream is dying
Redefine despair I turned away
So look the other way tonight
We're running
We're running hot tonight and it feels so good
Your arm in mine here near midnight and it feels so right
Girls and the boys chase down running hot tonight
Can you wait for me a little, a little longer?
Can you wait for me a little, little stronger?
Can you wait for me a little, little stronger now?
We're running
We're running hot tonight and it feels so good
Your arm in mine here near midnight and it feels so right
Girls and the boys chase down running hot tonight
Can you wait for me a little longer?
We're running
We're running hot tonight and it feels so good
Your arm in mine here near midnight and it feels so right
Girls and the boys chase down running hot tonight
