

And One, Don't Need The Drugs

Take a minute
Take a look in the mirror by your side
Send a sign proceed a crime
It doesn't have to be
No intentions to terminate your soul
Brave the answer quietly
Fortunately easily

Can't let it go it's all we know
And everything you need just to breathe
In a vacuum until it makes you bleed
Greedy fingers wants to have it all
Brave the answer quietly
Fortunately easily

Don't need the drugs to be
Don't need the drugs
Something's beating out of hell
The undertaker rings his bell
Don't need the drugs to be

Going down underground
Leaving everything you've lost
In your mind you'll be fine
No matter what the cost
Make a promise a promise you can't keep
Brave the answer quietly
Fortunately easily
