

And One, Evil Boys

verybody knows we're the evil boys step aside for the dangerous deadly toys (painless, aimless - evil boys you're brainless) run run run is a necessary fun we don't brake for anything just for fun

everybody knows we're the evil boys with their deadly toys
we make a noise
evil boys go nowhere

he's the guy on the utter side braking brakes but the audience passing by

get out of the car trip over dead leg it's no shame to search for a bloody money bag (painless, aimless - evil boys you're brainless)

with their deadly toys
evil boys go nowhere
